Where can I find it?

Q: My friend has a product she purchased in Israel that she absolutely loves. She's looked all over Atlanta for it and can't find it anywhere. We were wondering if you could find out how she can buy more. The product is called Labello Rose. It's a lip gloss made in Hamburg, Germany. It's sold in a pink package about the same size as a Chap Stick. Thank you.

A: While Labello is a popular brand of lip balm in Europe, we didn't find any on local shelves. However, your friend doesn't need to dig up her passport because she can order it online for $3 at www.lipmedic.com.
