Da Balm

Beach Wear & Gear, Beauty & Fragrance, Kids Gifts

Before we could wear makeup, Lip balm contraband was smuggled around in our knapsacks, occasionally melting onto the latest issue of Tiger Beat. The colorless stuff was invisible enough to sneak by mom's Revlon radar but still made us feel grown-up. Lipmedic is an entire site devoted to the proliferation of Chap Stick culture. So many people find exotic lip treatments during travels all over the world; owner Jacqueline Bethea has hunted them all down in an enormous selection of over 500 moisturizing tubes and tubs in over 100 flavors. And the Lip Balm of the Month club is a brilliant gift for your friend who runs through Lip Smackers like they're going out of style
